Notes:

Fourth official and completed race of year – last week no one made it to the first mark by the one-hour timelimit so abandoned

Race start was delayed due to a freighter's arrival and passage through the start line just as we were going to start for an 18:45 start time

Pretty much a waterline race with four tacks from start to finish

With concern that the wind would drop as indicated by prediction we did a short course

General Notes:

Fields in yellow highlight are tentative and require confirmation or perhaps any data at all

Without a PHRF certificate, JAM handicap is average Spin Number + 10
